Fr. Leo Patalinghug was ordained on June 5,1999 in the Archdiocese of Baltimore.His priestly duties have included parish ministry, an executive faculty member and teacher in a national seminary, and chaplain services for prison, health care, special needs, religious communities, and professional groups. In 2014, After several years of discernment and with the permission of the Archbishop of Baltimore, Fr. Leo was accepted as a priest member into a Community of Consecrated Life called Voluntas Dei (The Will of God), a Secular Institute of Pontifical Rite. Currently he is the Founder, Host, and Director of Grace Before Meals, an international apostolate to help strengthen families and relationship through God's gift of a family meal. He is also working on establishing a non-profit component called "The Table Foundation" with the mission to elevate culture and family life, one meal at a time. Along with his priestly duties, Fr. Leo is the host for the TV Show Savoring our Faith on EWTN, Co-Host for the radio show Entertaining Truth on Sirius XM Radio, bestselling author, contributor for newspaper and magazines, and rated as one of the best speakers for the New Evangelization. Fr. Leo has been featured on ABC, CBS, NBC, PBS, EWTN, and even the Food Network, where Fr. Leo defeated a world famous chef in a cooking competition called, "Throw Down! with Bobby Flay." His message combines faithful Catholic theology presented in a way that everyone can understand and appreciate. Using his unique background as a chef, a 3rd degree Black Belt Martial Arts Teacher, and former award winning choreographer for a break dancing group, Fr. Leo's presentations, retreats, parish missions, and keynote talks have brought diverse audiences closer to the Lord's Table.

Fr. Leo will celebrate all the Masses on October 19, Sunday. He will also have his books available for sale and to autograph after all his evening presentations.
