Subject: Saint Charles Caritas: Project# 19, Distribuion of Food TJ dumpsite 06-28-10

Dear Friends of Saint Charles Caritas, Charity on the Border:

May your days always be blessed!

June 26, Saturday was the Project# 19 Distribution of Food at the Tijuana dumpsite. More than 250 bags were distributed to poor families who reside in the TJ dump site. Please see pictures below. The volunteers were: Gary Brown and his 2 children Laurel Brown (attending the Santa Barbara University for her PhD) and Joel Brown (studying at Boston for his Master's spent their time helping us), Mary Wilson, Tommy Karl, Belia Campos, Blanca Mendez, Sister Silvia & Sister Graciela and I. We were happy to distribute several items aside from the bags of food such as toothbrushes, toothpaste, 300 assorted cookies, Snicker bars and approximately 200 dehydrated complete meals (donated by a kind donor from the Mission de Alcala area). Each volunteer had a task to do. The recipients and children lined up waiting for their numbers to be called (background is the hill of the dump site). We came back to San Diego at 2pm.

We thank a thousand more all the volunteers and donors! May God bless you always for all your dedication. The volunteers last Caritas Day and Costco buy of food: Diane Martin who took care of the nuns and volunteers for our lunches during Caritas Day and hot-dog combo during the buy of food. Other Caritas Day volunteers: Christine Phillips, Cecilio & Lolita Salamanca, Elvia Valdevieso, Jim & Imy Gates, Cynthia Schneider, Claudia Offerman, Ana Martinez, Greg & Evelyn Degano, Frank Racca, and 12 nuns from TJ.

Thank you very much to Fr. Arnold Tadena, associate pastor (Fr. George was on vacation), Fr. Raffy Britanico & Fr. Jesus. Sister Elizabeth Wekall and Hilda Dennison for their support and donations. And most of all, our anonymous donors who has been there for the Caritas to make every month possible to continue this mission.

Thank you once again,
