FROM THE PASTOR

> Beloved: First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. – 1Tim 2:1-2

The above quote comes from Paul's first letter to Timothy. In it he asks the new bishop Timothy to direct his flock to pray for all those in positions of authority. He makes this request for two main reasons. First, because when those in authority are under the guidance of the Lord the faithful may live lives of devotion and dignity in tranquility without any sort of government interference. In short, he says pray for the holiness of your leaders so that you can live lives of holiness while of oppression. Second, he asks for these types of prayers because God approves of them. It is God's will that all people be saved. When we pray for those with authority on earth we are told that the Lord can work through them for the salvation of all.

A good question for all of us might be to ask ourselves when was the last time we prayed for the president, our senators or congressmen? When was the last time we asked God to bless the city council or the governor or state legislators? Yet this is our task as Christians. You and I are called to prepare a world for Christ and it is important that we ask Him to bless those in positions of authority with his grace so that we can go about doing the work of Christ as his disciples. Lord knows those who govern could use our prayers.

Though the announcement hasn't been made as of the writing of this article I suspect that Bishop Brom will officially retire this week and Bishop Cirilo Flores will be named our new bishop. So, might I also ask your prayers for our bishop, me, and the other priests of the Diocese. Lord certainly knows we need your prayers. Though we try our best to help you on the road to Heaven, and we try to be good stewards of the material and spiritual gifts under our care, we too fail sometimes. Sometimes we fail in a big way. For the times that I or one of my brother priests have failed any of you I humbly ask for your forgiveness. For his own reasons God has chosen ordinary men to do extraordinary things. So please pray for your priests that we may be worthy servants of God and you, his people.

DEL PASTOR

Amados: Ante todo recomiendo que se hagan peticiones, oraciones, suplicas y acciones de gracias a Dios por toda la humanidad. Se debe orar por los que gobiernan y por todas las autoridades, para que podamos gozar de una vida tranquila y pacifica, con toda piedad y dignidad. Esto es bueno y agrada a Dios, nuestro Salvador, pues el quiere que todos se salven y lleguen a conocer la verdad. - 1 Tim 2:1-2

La cita anterior proviene de la primera carta de Pablo a Timoteo. En ella le pide al nuevo obispo Timoteo dirigir a su rebaño a orar por todos aquellos en posiciones de autoridad. Él hace esta solicitud por dos razones principales. En primer lugar, porque cuando los que están en puestos de autoridad están bajo la dirección del Señor los fieles pueden vivir una vida de devoción y dignidad en completa tranquilidad, sin ningún tipo de interferencia por parte del gobierno. En resumen, el dice recen por la santidad de sus dirigentes para que puedan vivir una vida de santidad mientras en opresión. En segundo lugar, pide estos tipos de oraciones porque Dios los aprueba. Es voluntad de Dios que todas las personas se salven. Cuando oramos por aquellos con autoridad en la tierra se nos dice que el Señor puede trabajar a través de ellos para la salvación de todos.

Una buena pregunta para todos nosotros podría ser preguntarnos ¿cuándo fue la última vez que oramos por el presidente, los senadores o diputados? ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que le pedí a Dios que bendijera al ayuntamiento o al gobernador o a los legisladores estatales? Sin embargo, esta es nuestra tarea como Cristianos. Ustedes y yo somos llamados a preparar un mundo para Cristo, por lo que es importante que le pidamos que bendiga a los que ocupan posiciones de autoridad con su gracia para que podamos hacer la obra de Cristo como sus discípulos. El Señor sabe que los que gobiernan podrían utilizar de nuestra oración.

Aunque el anuncio no se ha hecho a partir de la fecha de la redacción de este artículo me temo que el Obispo Brom va a jubilarse oficialmente esta semana y el Obispo Cirilo Flores será nombrado nuestro nuevo obispo. Así, que yo también pido sus oraciones por nuestro obispo, para mi y por los demás sacerdotes de la Diócesis. El Señor ciertamente sabe que necesitamos de sus oraciones. Aunque nos esforzamos al máximo para ayudarles en el camino al cielo, y tratamos de ser buenos administradores de los dones espirituales y materiales bajo nuestro cuidado, nosotros también fallamos a veces. A veces fallamos de una gran manera. Por las veces que yo o uno de mis hermanos sacerdotes les hemos fallado a alguno de ustedes les pido humildemente perdón. Por sus propias razones Dios ha escogido a hombres ordinarios a hacer cosas extraordinarias. Así que, por favor, oren por sus sacerdotes que seamos dignos siervos de Dios y a ustedes, su pueblo.
