FROM THE PASTOR

The month of November, beginning with All Saints and All Souls Days, is usually dedicated to prayer and penance for the deceased. On All Souls Day we prayed for all of the deceased and remembered in a special way those 80 souls we laid to rest here at St. Charles this past year. Yes, we actually had 80 funerals since October of 2012. It is on this topic I wish to make a few observations.

The Funeral Liturgy, along with the Vigil Service and Rite of Committal, are not primarily about celebrating the lives of our deceased loved ones nor is it first about giving us comfort. Certainly, we are given the opportunity to remember their better qualities and receive God's consolation but that should not be the focus. In doing so, we make the funeral about us and not the deceased. Sometimes, the surviving family members want an eulogy extolling the virtues of the deceased basically declaring them saints in Heaven. We say things like, "Tita has gone to heaven" or "Pops is with Jesus now". What we often forget is that no soul goes directly to Heaven. The first stop after death is before the throne of God's judgment where we will be judged according to our lives on earth and then assigned to the place our lives merit. As we read in 2 Cor 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

For this reason, we offer the Funeral Mass. First to worship God and then to pray for the salvation of our deceased loved ones. We acknowledge that God alone is worthy of all praise, honor, and glory. Having praised Him and offered Him the One Sacrifice that is pleasing to Him, the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ in the Eucharist, we beseech his mercy on the souls of our loved ones. While we live we all have the freedom to make choices and upon these we will be judged. At the Funeral Mass we ask not for justice alone, but mercy too. It is our prayer at Mass that those who have passed may be found worthy of the Kingdom and that new saints are born into Heaven to praise God forever, share in his glory, and intercede for us. This is love's obligation, this is the fulfillment of love's debt and this is what brings us peace.

So might I ask you for a favor? Please take some time this month to pray for those souls not already in Heaven. Perhaps you might offer a rosary for them or do some sort of penance for them. Have a Mass said for them or attend the daily Mass for the month or as often as possible. As the Maccabees offered sacrifice for their fallen brothers, so do we. Let us acknowledge God's justice and trust in his mercy.

St Charles Parish will have a special collection this weekend of Nov. 16-17 for the benefit of our affected brethren and the Church in the region devastated by Super Typhoon Haiyan. His Eminence Cardinal Timothy Dolan, in his letter to all bishops wrote: "Our Church mourns the terrible suffering of our brothers and sisters affected by this powerful storm. To complicate this situation, Typhoon Haiyan follows on the heels of a 7.2 magnitude earthquake in the same region just a month ago. Citizens in this Pacific Island country are already displaced and have been hurt even more. The local government and church institutions cannot manage the magnitude of this disaster on their own. Those affected need our help." Please be generous with your donations.

The Closing Celebration for the Year of Faith will be held on November 23, Saturday at the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass, followed by a reception at the Parish Hall. DEL PASTOR

El mes de noviembre, comenzando con Todos Los Santos y el Día de Todos los Fieles Difuntos, se suele dedicar a la oración y a la penitencia por los difuntos. En el día de Todos los Fieles Difuntos oramos por todos los difuntos y los recordamos de una manera especial a las 80 almas que fueron puestas a reposar de aquí de San Carlos el año pasado. Sí, tuvimos 80 funerales desde Octubre del 2012. Es de este tema del que quiero hacer algunas observaciones.

La Liturgia Fúnebre, junto con la Vigilia y el Rito de Internamiento, en primer lugar no son una celebración de la vida de nuestros seres queridos difuntos tampoco es primordialmente para darnos consuelo. Ciertamente, se nos da la oportunidad de recordar sus mejores cualidades y recibir consuelo de Dios pero eso no debe ser el enfoque. De esta manera, hacemos que el funeral sea mas sobre nosotros y no del difunto. A veces, los familiares sobrevivientes quieren un elogio exaltando las virtudes del difunto básicamente declarándolos santos en el cielo. Decimos cosas como, "Tita se ha ido al cielo" o "Papa ya está con Jesús". Lo que a menudo olvidamos es que ningún alma va directamente al cielo. La primera parada después de la muerte es ante el trono del juicio de Dios en donde se nos juzgará de acuerdo a nuestras vidas en la tierra y, a continuación, se nos asignara al lugar que nuestras vidas merecen. Como podemos leer en 2 Cor 5:10 Porque todos tenemos que presentarnos ante el tribunal de Cristo, para que cada uno reciba lo que le corresponda, según lo bueno o lo malo que haya hecho mientras estaba en el cuerpo.

Por esta razón, ofrecemos la Misa Funeral. En primer lugar para adorar a Dios y, después, para orar por la salvación de nuestros seres queridos difuntos. Reconocemos que sólo Dios es digno de toda alabanza, honor y gloria. Tras haberlo alabado a él y ofrecido el único sacrificio que es agradable delante de él, el cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad de Cristo en la Eucaristía, pidamos misericordia por las almas de nuestros seres queridos. Al tiempo que vivimos, todos tenemos la libertad de tomar decisiones y sobre estas se nos juzgará. En la Misa de Funeral no solo le pedimos por justicia, sino también por misericordia. Es por nuestra oración en la Misa que los que han aprobado pueden ser hallados dignos del reino y que los nuevos santos son nacidos en el cielo a alabar a Dios para siempre, en su gloria, e intercedan por nosotros. Este es el amor de su obligación, se trata del cumplimiento de la deuda de amor y esto es lo que nos trae la paz.

Entonces tal vez les pida un favor? Por favor tome algo de tiempo este mes para orar por las almas que no están en el cielo. Tal vez usted podría ofrecer un rosario por ellos o hacer algún tipo de penitencia para ellos. Mande hacer una Misa para ellos o bien asistir a la Misa diariamente por todo el mes o tan a menudo como sea posible. Como los Macabeos ofrecieron sacrificios por sus hermanos caídos, nosotros también hagámoslo. Reconozcamos la justicia de Dios y confianza en su misericordia.

El Grupo de Fil-Am tendrán venta de Pastelitos y comida HOY en el patio. El Grupo Holy Name Society tendrán venta el próximo domingo 24 de Noviembre del 2013.

Este fin de semana 16 & 17 de Noviembre es de Caritas de San Carlos. Todas las Hermanas de Tijuana estarán en las puertas de salida el domingo y los voluntarios en la Misas de las 5pm. 100% De sus donaciones se utilizarán para comprar alimentos básicos. Seguimos pidiendo leche Nido de Nestlé en polvo, de 3.52 libras. Esta ira a las beneficencias con niños pequeños. Que Dios los bendiga a todos y muchas gracias!

La Parroquia de San Carlos tendrá una colecta especial este fin de semana 16 & 17 de Noviembre para ayudar a nuestros hermanos afectados y las Iglesias de la región devastada por el tifón Haiyan. Su Eminencia el Cardenal Timothy Dolan, en su carta a todos los obispos escribió: "Nuestra Iglesia lamenta el terrible sufrimiento de nuestros hermanos y hermanas afectados por esta poderosa tormenta. Para complicar más la situación, un tifón Haiyan siguió los pasos de un terremoto de magnitud 7.2 en la misma región hace apenas un mes. Los afectados necesitan nuestra ayuda." Por favor, sean generosos con sus donaciones.

COLECTA PARA LAS NECECIDADES NACIONALES: El próximo fin de semana se ha designado para la "Colecta del 2013 para Necesidades Nacionales." Habrá sobres especiales para esta colecta que ayuda a sostener a las Misiones para Negros e Indios, las Misiones Católicas Domesticas, la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano, la Campaña para la Comunicación Católica, y la Universidad Católica de América.
