FROM THE PASTOR

The following words were from the canonization of Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II. Pope Francis proclaimed their sainthood in the following way:

"For the honor of the Blessed Trinity, the exaltation of the Catholic faith and the increase of the Christian life, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ and of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul and having sought the council of many of our brother Bishops, we declare and define Blessed John XXIII and John Paul II be Saints. We enroll them among the Saints, decreeing that they are to be venerated as such by the whole Church. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

What was it that made John XXIII and John Paul II saints? Well, first I suppose we should ask what it means to be a saint. Of course the word "saint" comes from a Latin word meaning "holy". This is readily apparent in the Spanish language where the words for "holy" and "saint" are the same "santo". If we are to be saints then we must strive for holiness of life. What made these two great men holy was their love for the Lord. When we fall in love with God our hearts become open to receive grace upon grace and an abundance of other good gifts from God. When we truly love God we seek to do his will above everything else. Sin loses its attraction and doing the good becomes so much easier when this love fills us up.

Think of the disciples in today's gospel reading. Two of Jesus' disciples were heading home after his crucifixion. Surely they loved him but they didn't understand that he was going to rise from the dead. They thought their ministry with him was ended when he died. And yet as they are walking home Jesus walks with them without them knowing who he is (remember, the glorified Christ can take any appearance he wishes). As they speak with him their hearts are burning within them. Finally, in the breaking of the bread (Mass) they recognize him. The love they had for him was deepened and made strong in the Eucharist. So much so that they ran all the way back to Jerusalem to see the Apostles and other disciples, a seven mile hike!

So it will be with us. The Eucharist, when received worthily, deepens and perfects our love for God. It helps us to run toward the Church gathered in prayer. It helps us to live lives of holiness and charity. Let us seek the intercession of Saints John XXIII and John Paul II and ask them to help us love God as we ought. Let us also look to them as examples to inspire and perfect our faith. Finally, let us recognize that we always walk with Jesus and I pray that your hearts burn with love for Him.

2014 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL
DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO

Our 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal Assessment is $45,000. As in the previous year, we will fulfill this assessment from the proceeds of our current Capital Campaign. So we encourage and request every parishioner to continue supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal through our very own Capital Campaign. Your participation is a stewardship response as it opens the door of faith for yourself, your family, and the community.

Collection Report for April 27, 2014 $17,144.92
May God bless you more for your sacrificial gift and ever generous support of St. Charles Parish.

DEL PASTOR

Las siguientes palabras vienen de la canonización del Papa Juan XXIII, y el Papa Juan Pablo II. El Papa Francisco proclamó su santidad de la siguiente manera.

"Por honor de la Santísima Trinidad, exaltación de la fe católica y el incremento de la vida cristiana, por la autoridad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo y de los Santos Apóstoles Pedro y Pablo, y nuestra luego de una adecuada deliberación y tras frecuente oración pidiendo la asistencia divina y habiendo recibido el consejo de muchos de nuestros hermanos obispos declaramos y definimos Santos a los Beatos Juan XXIII y Juan Pablo II y los inscribimos en el libro de los santos y establecemos que en toda la Iglesia ambos sean devotamente honrados En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo."

¿Qué fue lo que hizo a Juan XXIII y Juan Pablo II santos? Supongo, que primero habría que preguntarse qué significa ser un santo. Por supuesto, la palabra "santo" proviene del latín y significa "santo". Esto se hace evidente en el idioma español en las palabras de "santos" y "san" son las mismas "santo". Si hemos de ser santos, debemos de aspirar a la santidad de la vida. Lo que hizo a estos dos grandes hombres santos fue su amor por el Señor. Cuando nos enamoramos de Dios, nuestro corazón se abre para recibir gracia sobre gracia y una abundancia de otras buenas dádivas de Dios. Cuando amamos verdaderamente a Dios, tratamos de hacer su voluntad por encima de todo. El pecado pierde su atractivo y hacer el bien se vuelve mucho más fácil cuando este amor nos llena.

Piensen en los discípulos en el evangelio de hoy. Dos de los discípulos de Jesús se dirigían a su casa después de su crucifixión. No cabe duda de que lo amaban pero no entendían que él iba a resucitar de entre los muertos. Pensaban que su ministerio con él se terminó cuando murió. Y sin embargo, al ir caminando hacia su casa Jesús camina con ellos sin que ellos se dieran cuenta quien era el (recuerden, el Cristo glorificado puede tomar cualquier apariencia que el quiera). Mientras ellos hablan con él sus corazones ardían dentro de ellos. Finalmente en la fracción del pan (Misa) lo reconocen. El amor que le tenía a él se profundizó y formalizo en la celebración de la Eucaristía. Tanto así, que corrieron camino de regreso a Jerusalén para ver a los Apóstoles y a otros discípulos, siete kilómetros de senderismo.

Por lo tanto, estará con nosotros. La Eucaristía, cuando se recibe dignamente, profundiza y perfecciona nuestro amor por Dios. Nos ayuda a correr hacia la Iglesia reunida en oración. Nos ayuda a vivir una vida de santidad y de caridad. Busquemos la intercesión de los Santos Juan XXIII y Juan Pablo II, y pidámosles que nos ayuden a amar a Dios como debemos. Veamos también a ellos como ejemplos para inspirar y perfeccionar nuestra fe. Por último reconozcamos que siempre caminamos con Jesús y le pido a dios que sus corazones arden de amor por Él.
