

Dear Friends of Saint Charles Caritas, Charity on the Border.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Lord Jesus Christ!

Please, please continue to pray for Jim that Jesus Christ will grant Jim his divine healing. We are also praying that Mother Teresa would intercede and pray for Jim's complete healing. Thank you so much for all your prayers. We are also praying for you.

The Caritas Day will be next Saturday & Sunday, Oct 19 & 20, Saturday & Sunday. Please see the nuns and volunteers at the exit door of St. Charles Church. 100% of your donations will go to buy basic food and basic necessities for 7 charities.

I was not present during the buying and bagging of food this Saturday. I was taking care of Jim. We must continue to help the poor and destitute mothers at TJ.

Thank you for all the wonderful 24 volunteers who bagged the food today, 10/12/2013, Saturday. Thank you so much for Sarah Bajo Warren & Joe Bajo who spearheaded this event. On behalf of the Caritas, Sarah & Joe bought the food items for the Project Madre Rita #1, Grocery Bags of Food for the destitute single mothers with children. A 100 bags were made.

The distribution of these bags and serving of lunches will be on Nov. 9, Saturday, starts at 8am at St. Charles Church outside room 13 then to the border at San Ysidro. If you want to volunteer this great event, please bring your passport and bottled water. Please do not bring any other items because you are going to cross the border with some items with you from Caritas. We are hoping to get some toiletries. Also you will be carrying bag of rosaries and how to pray the rosary in Spanish, brand new girl scouts T-shirts and etc.

Thank you Aileen Barretto (wife of deacon Bob), and Andrea Valenzuela (DMI leaders) who spearheaded the donation of 70 small Nestle Nido Milk for this project. Thank you DMI (Daughters of Mary Immaculate).

Thank you kids of Saint Charles Catholic School, teachers and parents who came and bagged the food: Ms. Islas, Lauren Doan, Fernanda Ayala, Melesio Villegas, Amy Russel, Jaqueline Reyes, Danny & Adriel Tuason, Maritza & Carlos Cerna, Victor Beltran, Sophia Steinberg, Sergio Gonzalez, Laura Flores & Mr. Flores, and the Ancheta family: Paula, Anamaria & Trey and other volunteers not on the list.

On behalf of the Saint Charles Caritas, thank you, thank you volunteers and God bless all of you!

Sincerely,

Merlyn Baker
