

Dear Friends of Saint Charles Caritas,

Amen, Amen, Amen I say to you O' God. Thank you Lord Jesus Christ!

On behalf of Saint Charles Caritas, I thank God for you for sharing your treasures, your time/efforts and support for this charity.

Thank you to the Go family, owner of Sea Food City Grocery Chains for donating 500 lbs of rice, 30 cases of ramen and canned foods. These all went to the charities in TJ and Ensenada. These happened because of Jeff Muffley and Paul Hart. I thank God for these 2 gentlemen. Also, thank you to the volunteers during Caritas Day and during the distribution of food to our homeless friends.

Fr. Emilio Magana, pastor was thanking the Caritas and friends for supporting the church and the school.

Thank you also to anonymous donors who donated 2 toaster oven for the Sacred Heart of Jesus in TJ & Ensenada. Also, thank you to a friend of the Caritas who donated a coin counter to make the counting of coins much, much easier rather than by hand.

Please see pictures of Caritas activities: Picture 1: The girl (from Santa Teresita) was learning to knit scarf from the nuns; Picture 2, Bagging of Food for Jim's Project #50 Homeless Help. Our smallest volunteer, Carlito. He volunteered together with his entire family often. Picture 3: the nuns loading the ramen and rice on their vehicles and Picture 4: Buying of Food at Costco ready to check out.
