07/28/2024 Sunday, from Sister Elsie Nasayao of Daughters of Charity, Stella Maris. "Happy and grace-filled Sunday, our dear friends from Saint Charles Caritas and to you Ate Merlyn.

As we are about to start the school year (tomorrow, July 29, would be the first day of classes in almost all of the schools here). We held our General Assembly today attended by the 34 student beneficiaries of Stella Maris Center together with their mothers/ fathers. We started the assembly by praying 🙏 the Rosary led by a parent and the Novena to our Lady of the Miraculous Medal led by one of the children.

Together with us, this day is a Nun from the Religious of the Good Shepherd who shared about ecology, women and the realities of the youth in this age of social media. There was a sharing (small group and big group), after which snacks were distributed. We prepared spaghetti, chocolate drinks, pancakes for children and suman, and other kinds of pasta, prepared by the parents.

Distribution of hygiene kits and school supplies followed. The children and parents were very happy having received these items.

Thank you once again, Saint Charles Caritas, and also to you, Ate Merlyn, for keeping the generosity of Christ alive, especially to our poor children, brothers and sisters. God bless."
